Thousands of Volunteers Lend a Hand during Hands On San Diego Event

More than 3,000 volunteers are expected to descend on hundreds of projects at San Diego nonprofits, schools, parks, and recreation centers to conduct activities ranging from tutoring, to landscaping, serving meals, building and playground renovations, and mural painting.

Volunteer opportunities available cover the range of skills, abilities, ages, and individual or group preferences.

This is the 18th annual Hands On San Diego event, intended to celebrate volunteering's impact on the community, as well as encourage current, inactive, and new volunteers to give their time.

The event is organized by Volunteer San Diego. It is sponsored by QUALCOMM, Hamilton Sundstrand, Teradata, Asymtek, Barona, Cricket Communications, GKN Aerospace, Hewlett Packard, HSBC Auto Finance, Mitchell International, Petco, San Diego National Bank, San Diego Padres, SeaWorld, Solar Turbines, Sony, and Union Bank of California Foundation, and VAVi Sport & Social Club.

Schedule, location, and opportunity details are available at www.volunteersandiego.org or by calling Kelli Ochoa at kochoa@volunteersandiego.org or 858-636-4133.

About Volunteer San Diego

Volunteer San Diego creates lasting community impact through meaningful individual and group volunteer action in the greater San Diego area. Through dedicated volunteer programs—specialized to facilitate and leverage individual, group, and corporate volunteers—it equips, inspires, and mobilizes the manpower, talents, and skills of more than 36,000 individuals. This results in more than $2 million worth of service to the community annually.
