

Top 25 Reasons to Attend Servapalooza

1. It's Free
2. You will have a ton of fun
3. To be part of the largest service event in the world, Global Youth Service Day, along with millions of others in over 100 different countries
4. You can march in the Parade of Wishes along with City Councilmembers Donna Frye and Todd Gloria
5. To be a service hero and get a button to prove it
6. You can help the Surfrider Foundation and preserve the environment by decorating reusable grocery bags
7. Chris Rubio's Jr. Crew are putting on a rockin' and powerful show, where sticks, pans, water jugs, trashcans and more will be used as musical instruments
8. You can take part in the Silent Auction and bid on fun-filled packages such as a family 4 pack of tickets to Sea World that includes swimming with the dolphins
9. A multi-cultural and community-centered dance crew from TranscendANCE Youth Arts Project will address complex social issues through an artistic and inspiring dance performance
10. You get to paint canvases for the Art Miles Mural Project that will be displayed in Egypt and help promote global peace and harmony through art
11. There will be delicious food at the festival including burritos from Wahoo's, and half the proceeds go to support Servapalooza
12. To encourage reading by making bookmarks for children in a Nicaraguan village
13. The event is being held in beautiful Balboa Park, the country's largest urban cultural park
14. You will have the chance to win awesome raffle prizes like Padres Gear and more
15. To make somebody's day by writing Greeting and Get Well cards to senior residents for St. Pauls Senior Homes & Services
16. It feels good to help other people
17. You get to take part in the rebuilding of natural habitats in San Diego that were damaged from the 2007 wildfires by making seed balls, which are seeds protected by clay, that will sprout into beautiful plants and trees
18. You will have the satisfaction of knowing you helped overcome community and international challenges, plus you will have fun doing it

Servapalooza

A Service Festival & Parade of Wishes

19. To see the 7-time National Champion Carlsbad High Lancer Dancers and the Excalibur Dancers show off their latest moves
20. You can show off your hard work and Wish for the World in the Parade of Wishes
21. You can learn the sport of bocce with exceptional athletes with developmental disabilities
22. To make a difference in your community
23. To see and shop for cool stuff at the vendor booths
24. You can eat wonderful desserts from the adorable Kids for Peace chapters
25. You will help make the world a better place

